Some Helpful Things to Know Today

Can I receive Communion?

Yes. Everyone, without exception, is invited to receive Communion.

When am I supposed to stand?

At any point in the service, it's perfectly fine for you to remain seated as you're comfortable. We do have customary times when we stand or kneel; these are indicated by the italicized instructions throughout the service. There are also times when it is customary to cross ourselves, and if you wish to do so, the + indicates that.

Are children welcome here?

Yes. Children are invited to participate actively in the service. Also, coloring pages, crayons, and books are at the entrances to the church. Nursery care is available during the services for children ages 0-4. The Nursery is down the southwest stairs. And finally, changing tables are in the downstairs restrooms and the Nursery.

Where are the restrooms?

There are single-user, gender-neutral restrooms down the southwest stairs and also through the northeast door of the sanctuary.

How do I find my way around?

There's a map at the Welcome Table near the west entrance to the church. Also feel free to ask anyone to help you around.

Is there wheelchair accessibility?

Yes. An accessible restroom is through the northeast door of the sanctuary. An elevator is being installed this Fall. Everyone is invited to remain seated at any point during the service as they need.

How about hearing assistance?

We can help there, too. Hearing-assistance devices are available from the ushers.

The musical score is written on a single treble clef staff in G major and 8/8 time. It consists of eight lines of music with lyrics underneath. The lyrics are: "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; God's mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning, your faithfulness, O Lord, is great. You are all that I have; and therefore I will wait for you. You, O Lord, are good to those who wait for you, to all those who seek you. It is good to wait in patience for the salvation of the Lord. God's mercies never come to an end. The great. Your faithfulness, O Lord, is great." There are two Coda symbols (⊕) in the score: one above the word "faithfulness" and one at the beginning of the final line. The score ends with a double bar line.

The stead -fast love of the Lord nev - er cea - ses; God's mer - cies

the King of kings and Lord of lords:
Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth,

The Lessons

A reading from the book of Ezekiel.

Thus says the Lord God: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land. I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord God. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice.

Therefore, thus says the Lord God to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide, I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.

I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. And I, the Lord, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the Lord, have spoken.

Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24

Psalm 95: 1-7

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

+ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?' And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.' Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?' Then he will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

Matthew 25:31-46

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Today's Preacher: Rev'd KJ Oh, Assistant Priest.

9:15 only:

Children's Chapel - Children in preschool to second grade are invited to their own liturgy in the Chapel. They will return at the Peace. We ask that parents take crying infants to the Narthex or Nursery.

The Prayers of the People

God, we thank you for this fertile earth in which we live and move and have our very being. May we meet you in the rays of each morning and the shadows of every evening. Cling to our hearts and minds, and keep us sheltered in the warmth of your womb.
Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

We pray for those who are hungry or cold, that we would feed and shelter them. For those who are imprisoned, that we would visit them. We pray also for the abolition of prisons, hunger, and every form of human greed, that your holy dream may be made known among us.

Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

For all those who have been involved in our parish's construction campaign, that their faithful labor alongside the forbearance of your church would birth good things. May this renovated building loosen our tongues, that your people may speak new testaments to your glory.

Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

For those who are suffering this season, in mind, body, or spirit. We pray especially for Frances Framer (sister of Brenda Kilpatrick), Lee Allen (friend of Jane Stuart), Ann St. John (friend of Robert & Sheila Bator), John O'Dowd (father of Maureen Jesuthasan), Suzanne (mother of Betsy Ko), Sophia Dillard (granddaughter of Robert and Sheila Bator), Barbra Goering, Sean Knight (son of Shirley Knight), Thomas Meadley (cousin of JP Brown), Rudy White (husband of Greg Colombe), Jacquelynne Corey, Kenneth Larsen (father of David Larsen), and George & Olive Whitley.

Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

For those who have died, that they may be held in the arms of Christ. May the great cloud of witnesses and all ancestors surround us always and stir us towards one another. We pray especially for Glenda Mowatt who died on Tuesday, November 9th, June Schultz (11/27, grandmother of Maureen Jesuthasan), and Cajsa Elo (11/27).

Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

We pray for those who celebrate birthdays, including Romonda McKinney Bumpus (11/26), Peter Allen (11/28), Andrew Heyman (11/29), Moses Jr. Kitson Jr. (11/30), and Fran Spaltro (11/30); and for those who celebrate their anniversaries including Tom Chesrown & Jim Steen (11/26), and Tina & Jeff Dugas (11/27).

Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

I invite you to offer your own prayers and thanksgivings, ending each with "Lord in your mercy."

Lord, hear the prayers of your people; and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we may obtain effectually, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Prayer by Kenji Kuramitsu

Confession and Absolution

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All bow or kneel as able.

God of all mercy;

we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives,

We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.

We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.

Forgive, restore, and strengthen us
through our Savior Jesus Christ,
that we may abide in your love
and serve only your will. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, + forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

All stand as able.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

All greet one another and return to their seats.

Some announcements will be given, but there's much more to find out in the front and back pages of this bulletin.
